World Storytelling Institute
and Center for Counselling (both based in Chennai)
present:

A One-Day Workshop for Adults in
"Storytelling and Healing", also known as
"Therapeutic Uses of Storytelling".

Date: Saturday 25 May.

Timing: 9:30am - 3:30pm.

Fee: Rs 750.

Location: To be announced.

Workshop Description:

In this Workshop, we would explore ways stories
could be composed and told by Caregivers and Clients, to help Clients work through issues.

We would be teaching-and-learning ways to use storytelling activities to give comfort, solace, guidance, and inspiration.

Life Stories, Episodes of Life Stories, Animal Fables, Fairy Tales, Episodes of Epics, and Imaginary Stories are some of the types of stories with which we would be working.

Participants would learn ways of beginning with True-Life Stories, and adding Fantasy. Uses of Metaphors would be explored, and Participants would learn ways of utilizing Metaphors in the story-making process. The Workshop would culminate in Participants composing and telling healing stories.

Additional notes regarding Storytelling Therapy are available at <http://tinyurl.com/czoderb> (scroll down,

Storytelling and Healing has become an important field.
Healing Story Alliance, <http://www.healingstory.org> ,
is one organisation dedicated to this process.

This One-Day Workshop might be especially useful for people who work in NGOs and in fields involving caring for people and helping them to grow and heal. Parents might also enjoy and benefit from this Workshop, as might people interested in Conflict-Resolution techniques.
